AVIATORS IN PERIL WHEN FORCED TO LAND ACROSS THE

RIO GRANDE RIVER

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

M'ALLEN (Tex.) Jan. 28.—Two army aviators, Lieuts. F. Davis and G. E. Grimes, carrying a military message from Ft. Brown, Tex., to Nogales, Ariz., today were forced to make a landing in Mexico, thirty miles south of Zapata, Tex., and tonight are being held by Mexicans.

According to a message received here tonight from the authorities, they have been promised their freedom tomorrow morning. Lufkin, Davis and Grimes were captured in the fog and became confused in the fog and followed the Solado River from Zapata into Mexico/instead of proceeding up the Rio Grande. They also had some camp trouble.

Thirty miles up the Solado River they were forced to land and camp, the men on shore, then, were

It is understood. The country there is wild and rugged and the only means of reaching the section quickly is by plane. All day long aviators from the Eighth Aero Squadron here have been flying over the heavy ridges of the Rio Grande and far into the interior without gaining sight of the missing men. The men are believed to be in the vicinity of a small little mining town. The message was received from Guernera, a railroad station, by a man named BROWNVILLE (Tex.) Jan. 18.—A message from military authorities here to the commander of the post at Nogales, Ariz., was dated today in eight hours and thirty minutes, according to announcement at Fort Huachuca, where the message was received. The message was headed to Lieut. Vincent J. Malloy, here.

MEXICAN ROADS RELEASED
LAREDO (Tex.) Jan. 20.—A railway material in the hands of the Mexican military forces has been returned to the United States, military officials, with a view to improving the service in general, the stationery, telegraph and telephone service.

WIRELESS EXPERTS GIVE VIEWS ON ALLEGED MARTIAN SIGNALS.

BY A. P. NICHOL WIRE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—It was manifestly outwitted skepticism among radio experts at the Navy Department today in discussing Signor Marconi's suggestion that Mars may be attempting to communicate with the earth by wireless.

Send a wireless message to Mars, Gen. Pershing replied.

"Although the wireless is highly perfected on earth, it would be impossible to accomplish this feat, this prodigy, for the waves would have great difficulty in traversing the upper reaches of the air, which are made conductors by the sun. Can-radio. Proponents of the theory that the mysterious interruptions are caused by a "cosmic" or "interplanetary" static dispute until scientists accounted for the mysterious interruptions experienced over some wireless telephone was perfected.

These interruptions or influences are entirely distinct from their registering effect from influences readily traceable to the atmosphere, and as the late physicist said Capt. W. S. Bryan of the naval communications service. "It is not a 'mushy' intensity as compared with clashing of static disturbances," he said. "There have been a much greater source of annoyance, however, than of interest. Whether or not they are extraterrestrial, as suggested by Marconi, seems to be an open question so far."

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—There has been no communication with wireless communication in America, asserted Dr. H. F. W. Wadsworth, chief engineer of the Radio Corporation of America, in discussing today the mysterious "atmospheric" disturbances recently reported in London by Sirigns Marconi.

He scouted the suggestion advanced by some scientists abroad that the disturbances might come from another planet. If any disturbance existed, according to Dr.

"I can assure the country that nothing abnormal has been recorded at Edhof Tower." We constantly have disturbances of the Pariahia currents, as they are called, with high ionizing commotion. They are attributable to atmospheric disturbances, or the same cause which produces the field has a formidable influence on our planet."

ITALIAN RAIL TIE-UP ENDS

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

MILAN, Jan. 28.—The great strike on the Italian state railways, which has thrown the country into confusion for six days, ended at midnight as the result of direct negotiations between Premier Nitti and the railway union.

The precise terms of the compromise are not yet divulged, but it is said these, as in the case of the postal and telegraph staffs, involve guarantees of immediate reference of the whole subject to parliamentary discussion.

The Simphon-Orient train de luxe narrowly escaped destruction between Verona and Venice. Long tubes of explosive gelatine, similar to Four sleeping cars were derailed, however, and the track torn up for 80 yards. The passengers suffered a severe nervous shock and traffic was blocked for twenty-four hours.

On the outskirts of this city five boys were shockingly injured while examining a bomb nefariously deposited under a railway bridge.

WILSON CABINET-FIXING IS POLITICAL CARPENTRY

Meredith Picked to Soothe the Wrath of Farmers for Houston; Burleson Proves Hard to Dislodge.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Cabinet changes effected by President Wilson yesterday, and others that are to follow, are relied upon by Democratic leaders to place the Wilson administration on a better footing with the people, recover lost popularity and enhance the chances of Democratic success in the approaching Presidential election.

By transferring Mr. Houston from the Agriculture to the Treasury portfolio, the President relieves the tension of the relations of the administration with the farmers of the country, which were beginning to give the Democratic leaders grave concern. Mr. Houston has never been popular with the farmers, and criticism of his administration, expressed through the National Board of Farm Organizations and other agricultural societies has been steadily increasing.

In explanation of the numerous specific complaints, an officer of the national board said tonight that Mr. Houston's forte is the theory of economics, and that his attitude toward the problems of the farmers had been professional instead of practical. Surprise was shown that the President had selected Mr. Meredith for Secretary of Agriculture, and that his practical experience in farming had been too limited, but hope was expressed that his administration would prove more acceptable to the farmers than the Houston regime.

The President has never lost confidence in Mr. Houston, whom he always has regarded as one of the strongest men in his Cabinet. His views on finance and economics particularly have greatly influenced the President at all times, and it is not surprising that Wilson should regard Houston as eminently qualified for Secretary of the Treasury.

With Mr. Houston and J. W. Alexander, the new Secretary of Commerce, the Cabinet now contains two members from Missouri, the State the Democrats hope to reclaim from the Republicans next fall.

There is every confidence among Democratic leaders that Mr. Meredith will recover the lost ground among the farmers, even if he should not be able to swing Republican Iowa from its moorings.

It is not only the publisher of an agricultural journal, but he is president of the National Association of Advertising Clubs, hallmarks of eminence in the art of attracting popular interest and favor.

MR. MEREDITH OPEN-SHOP MAN.

Whether Mr. Meredith succeeds in lessening the unpopularity of the administration with the farmers remains to be seen. His task is difficult, for the farmers are pretty generally disgruntled by the regulation of the price of wheat by a Democratic Congress.

Organized union labor is expected to oppose confirmation of the appointment of Mr. Meredith, because he is said to maintain an open shop for his publishing plant, but this circumstance will commend him to the vast majority of farmers.

Mr. Meredith, who was Iowa Food Administrator, is said to favor the nomination of Hoover for President, and Mr. Houston also is credited with leanings toward Hoover, with whom he is said to have patched up his differences.

There will be another Cabinet change when Secretary of the Interior Lane presents his resignation. The White House is expecting it, perhaps impatiently, for Secretary Tumulty recently shocked Mr. Lane by making the unprecedented announcement that the President had selected his successor, who would be appointed as soon as the Secretary resigned.

BURLESON A STICKLER.

Some Democratic leaders would be mightily pleased if Postmaster-General Burleson would resign, voluntarily or involuntarily, and permit the administration to regain favor with organized union labor, and with the post-office patrons, whom that official has offended. So far Mr. Wilson, however, has been deaf to all the clamor for Burleson's scalp.

FOUR DIE IN WINNIPEG FIRE.

WINNIPEG (Man.), Jan. 23.—Three men and a baby were burned to death today by flames which destroyed the Hermitage Hotel, a pioneer hotel, ten miles west of Winnipeg. W. C. Hall, proprietor of the hotel, was one of the three men killed. His wife and her own life and that of her 19-month-old baby by dashing with the baby out from the burning house into the 30-below-zero weather. She was clad only in her night dress.

EIGHT NEWBERRY TRIAL JURORS ARE SELECTED.

ATTORNEYS FOR PROSECUTION AND DEFENSE SATISFIED WITH DAY'S WORK.

GRAND RAPIDS, Jan. 23.—Rapid progress was made today in selection of a jury to hear the evidence for and against U. S. Senator Truman H. Newberry and his 123 co-defendants charged with conspiracy to violate Federal statutes in connection with the 1918 Senatorial campaign.

In less than five hours eight prospective jurors had been questioned and passed for cause, and two others had been excused.

Peremptory challenges will not be exercised until twelve men have been passed, but it was predicted tonight this stage might be reached tomorrow.

Attorneys for prosecution and defense expressed satisfaction with today's progress. Judge Sessions completed the case as he adjourned court a few minutes ahead of the scheduled hour. Martin W. Littleton, chief of counsel for the defense, said: "We are satisfied with the day's work."

Examination of the prospective jurors was generally expected to occupy the first week of the trial, and there were some who predicted that the taking of testimony would be delayed at least ten days.

CALIFORNIA LAWYER TO TEST DRY RULING.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 23.—An announcement that he would appear directly to the United States Supreme Court against the decision of U. S. District Judge R. G. Upholding the Federal prohibition amendment in a habeas corpus proceeding was made here today by Secretary A. B. Bell, an attorney who instituted the action. An endeavor would be made to have the appeal heard at the same date that the Rhode Island action against the amendment is argued, Bell said.

BAKER HALTS LINERS' SALE.

Former German Ships for Transports, He Says.

War Department has Spent Millions in Repairs.

Chairman Payne Stops Deal Pending Agreement.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Protest by Secretary Baker against the sale of certain of the former German passenger liners will delay final action by the Shipping Board, which today was considering bids submitted for the fleet of approximately thirty vessels.

In view of the approved agreement above referred to, and the fact that the War Department has expended millions of dollars for repair and outfitting of these vessels, the Secretary, "and has available at this time complete plans for utilizing these vessels in case of an emergency, I request that no action be taken toward the sale of any of the vessels forming a part of the army transport reserve until the matter has been presented to the President."

Chairman Payne replied that the board would not accept the bids until the matter had been taken up with the War Department.

Twelve bids for the liners have been received, and it is understood that one of them is for the entire fleet.

Among the former German vessels that preference in release for transport service is recommended in the inter-departmental agreement are the President Grant, the Mercury, the Powhatan, the Susquehanna, the Madawaska and the Arcton.

It was proposed to the inter-departmental conference that the foregoing named ships should be used by the Shipping Board for the trans-Pacific service, and the War Department released the vessels to the board with the understanding that they would be used in that traffic.

PRAZIL MAY INDEMNIFY.

RIO JANEIRO, Tuesday, Jan. 27.—The question of final disposition of the forty-five German ships taken over by Brazil during the war, some of which were leased to France, and others recently occupying public attention.

After the recent denial by Foreign Minister Barbosa of reports that the government was planning to sell the ships to the United States, a delegation of local officials, headed by President Pessoa, asking him the government's intentions.

He replied that he had his personal opinion that Brazil, as a matter of honor and by reason of her status of victor, should be indemnified by Germany to the extent of $25,000,000 for possession of the ships. The government, the President said, should sell the ships to the highest bidder and pay this sum to Germany.

ALLOTTE TRANSPORT.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Temporary allocation of the former transport Martha Washington to the New York and South American Line was announced today by Chairman Payne of the Shipping Board. The ship, which is to be taken to the place of the Callos, scheduled to sail from New York February 15, but which will be delayed by repairs.

The Martha Washington, of 3100 tons gross, will be used by the American service only until the Callos is ready, the chairman said.

GABY'S PET PEARLS ARE OH! SO SICK!

(BY CAROL-REXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

PARIS, Jan. 27.—Gaby Desly's pearls are sick, and to prevent them from dying the actress has asked her three trusted nurses at Montreux Hospital to wear them for her.

Gaby's mother, Mme. Calvo, and her sister, Mme. Du Conell, are also wearing ailing pearls.

When Gaby fell ill, at the beginning of December, she was all alone in Paris, and had just hired a new maid, so she could not trust a servant to take the jewelry to a safe-deposit vault. Instead, Gaby took all her jewels, including her priceless pearl necklace, given to her by former King Manuel of Portugal, to the hospital with her.

In the bare hospital room there was no place to lock up the jewelry, so she wore the necklaces.

But since the actress's illness, the rare oriental pearls have become sick also, and have lost their luster and beauty.

Week Gaby summoned Garipier, her jeweler, who told her the only way to save the pearls was by letting healthy persons wear them.

The actress thereupon distributed the necklaces, dog collars and other articles of pearl jewelry to her mother, sister, day nurse and night nurse, sending the diamonds and other stones for safe-keeping to the jeweler.

REPUBLICANS TO PLAN PLATFORM.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—The police and fire departments were hard hit by influenza today, 600 policemen and between 200 and 300 firemen being unable to report for duty.

The National Association of the Motion Picture Industry will today have warnings to avoid infection flashed on the screen in motion-picture houses.

NO CHANGED ARMY UNIFORMS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Secretary Baker ruled today that no changes would be made in present army uniforms, mainly because of the high cost of change.

At a recent conference of general officers and department commanders suggested that the percentage of uniforms regulations which would include adoption of the roll collar, the Sam Brown belt and limited use of the old blue uniforms.

Doane College Won't Close.

CRETE (Neb.), Jan. 23.—Denial was made here tonight that Doane College had been closed or contemplated closing because of the presence of spinal meningitis. Authorities of the college said a wrong impression had been created by precautions taken here. Officials of Crete said they believed the disease was under control.

CALIFORNIA AT POLLS THIS FALL MAY REDUCE HIGH LIVING COST.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 23.—A movement is under way in California, it became known at the capital today, to start initiative proceedings to place on the November, 1920, ballot a measure aimed to reduce the cost of living and to eliminate profiteering.

Under the provisions of the proposed act any person, firm or corporation would be guilty of profiteering if "a price in excess of the reasonable value of the article or commodity sold" were charged for the necessities of life, including drink, clothing, medicine or drugs.

"A reasonable value" would be defined as the "actual cost of the production or procurement of the article or commodity, plus a reasonable percentage of profit as a percentage of profit as has usually or ordinarily been charged and accepted by producers or dealers in said particular articles or commodities, in the usual course of business, against competition and during normal conditions of trade."

Violation of the act would be deemed a misdemeanor and for the first offense a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $100 could be imposed, or by imprisonment for not less than twenty-four days, or more than sixty days, or by both said fine and imprisonment.

BREMERTON (Wash.), Jan. 23.—Influenza at the Puget Sound navy yard has sent 180 men of the fleet to the hospital during the past several days. It became known today. One death was reported.

FEAR FLU AMONG CHINESE.

HALIFAX (N. S.), Jan. 23.—Three thousand Chinese coolies bound here from France are being held on board the steamer Minnekahda here until the military authorities are satisfied that the disease has been eliminated.

DEANE (Neb.), Jan. 23.—Deane College at Crete, Neb., and other schools there are closed and public gatherings are prohibited because of an outbreak of spinal meningitis. The State health department has ordered that all persons attacked by the disease have died during the past week.

SUNDAY-SCHOOLS LOSE MORE THAN 680,000.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 23.—Closer cooperation between the Sunday-school council of evangelical denominations and the International Sunday-school Association, was advocated at the annual convention of the former organization, which opened here today.

The council's constitution was amended so the international body may be represented at the council's meetings. This representation has been permitted for some time.

The report of the secretary, the Rev. G. T. Webb of New York, showed that Sunday-school attendance in the United States in the last two years fell off more than $8,000,000. The total attendance in 1918 was 18,751,787, a decrease of 272,712 over the preceding year, and in 1919 it decreased 469,752 more.

VAST GAS LOSS DISCOVERED

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

BAKERSFIELD, Jan. 23.—A daily loss of between 10,000,000 and 20,000,000 cubic feet of natural gas, which is escaping into the atmosphere from patented oil lands in the very heart of the naval petroleum reserve No. 1, Elk Hills, Kern county, is "a subject of great public importance at this time," declared State Oil and Gas Supervisor R. P. McLaughlin, in his weekly report, received here today.

The gas comes from two wells, where the rock pressure in the neighborhood of 600 pounds per square inch.

Supervisor McLaughlin says: "Future protection by the United States Navy on the Pacific Ocean demands that the utmost precaution be taken to preserve an adequate and available supply of fuel oil for the use of the fleet. Gas pressure within the oil-bearing formations is an important factor in forcing out the oil. Release of gas pressure increases the difficulty of obtaining the oil and retards the rate of production."

"The total daily production of oil from the Elk Hills is about 250,000 barrels. Gas to the amount of about 20,000,000 cubic feet is being utilized by delivery into the pipelines of the Midway Gas Company, which extends to Los Angeles. (And to Bakersfield and northward.)"

"First discovery of large amounts of gas in the Elk Hills was made in 1912. Since that time the Pan-American Petroleum Company, which has tapped both gas and oil."

"Shortage of pipe for gas lines is given as one reason for the waste. Existing pipe lines from the wells are working to full capacity. Pipe lines sufficient to handle all the gas are expected to be completed during February."

"Shortage of oil, or the present demand for oil, is given as an excuse for opening wells before sufficient gas pipeline facilities are available. An average of 100,000,000 cubic feet of gas is being lost daily, at the rate of 15 per cent of the value at the wells gives the excuse doubtful economic utility."

"Prevention of underground waste of oil or gas is provided for by legislation, giving the State Oil and Mining Bureau limited control over methods of drilling wells. This phase of the problem requires the co-operation of the oil and mining interests, and is now receiving fairly satisfactory attention in most cases."

Have you ever made a check list of the details that must be looked after in a trip to Europe? Sailing dates, hotel accommodations, itinerary on the other side—these are but a few of the obvious things. There are many others, most of which require the services of an experienced organization to secure your full enjoyment of the trip.

Bob Strehle Thinks of Returning to Pomona College.
Was Greatest Track Man in History of Institution.
His Re-entry Would Add Prestige to the South.
CLAREMONT, Jan. 28.—Bob Strehle is considering re-entering Pomona College at the beginning of the spring term. This fact is of the greatest interest to all Sage Hen track fans for the reason that Strehle is undoubtedly the greatest track made in the history of the College, and should he return, Pomona would be in a position to contend with the best of them.

AMERICAN SKATER REACHES BERGEN.

CHRISTIANIA (Norway)
Jan. 28.—Bobby McLean, the American skater, arrived at Bergen today, aboard the steamer Stavangerfjord, from New York. McLean was in fine condition. The press, in welcoming him, praised his modesty.

There is great interest in the coming race between McLean and Oscar Mathisen for the world's professional skating championship. Many applications for tickets for the race have been received from all over the country and the indications are that the accommodations of the rink, 18,000 spectators, will be overtaxed.

McLean's weight is 145 pounds, seven pounds less than Mathisen.

Bulldogs Forge to Front in Last Minute's Play.

Bruce Kirkpatrick is Star of Night's Contest.

Occidental played its first real game of the season last night and nearly took the measure of the league-leading Redlands basketball team. The latter won by a score of 36 to 22. The contest was staged on the Pasadena "T" court.

The Tigers led, 21 to 13, at the end of the first half and then looked briefly for a reversal of form displayed by the Orange and Black five. Bruce Kirkpatrick was the star of the Occidental players. But for his splendid guarding, Redlands' forwards would have scored at least twenty more points. Bobby Had-den, Tiger captain, was the high individual point scorer of the evening, making sixteen points. Troyer and Dye of Redlands were tied for second with twelve apiece.

The line-up follows:
Occidental: (1) Dye, (2) Had-den, (3) Kirkpatrick, (4) Troyer, (5) Dye.

Martens' Federal Testimony in New York Case.

Schenectady ex-Mayor Tells Socialist Secrets.

Prosecution Claims Aliens
Control Elections.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

ALBANY, Jan. 23.—In its effort to link the Socialists of America with the Bolsheviks of Russia in a conspiracy to overthrow organized government here, the prosecution at the hearing of the five suspended Socialist Assemblymen, charged with disloyalty, today succeeded in introducing in evidence testimony obtained from Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, by the joint legislative committee investigating radicalism.

Martens is the self-styled Russian Soviet Ambassador to the United States.

The Assembly Judiciary Committee, conducting the investigation admitted the evidence after protests by the Socialists' counsel. Counsel then demanded that, if the testimony be read at all, it be read in its entirety.

The reading began, and seemed due to continue for two or three days, when counsel reached an agreement whereby the testimony is to be printed and presented to the defense. Then both sides will read into the record such portions as they desire.

HEAD REDS INTO SOCIALIST TRIALFederal Testimony in New York Case.Schenectady ex-Mayor Tells Socialist Secrets.Prosecution Claims Aliens
Control Elections.

BY A. P. MORTIMER.

Schenectady, Jan. 28.—In its effort to overthrow organized government here, the prosecution at the trial of the five suspended Assemblymen, charged with conspiracy to overthrow the government, today succeeded in introducing evidence testimony from Ludwig C. A. K. Marzani, by the joint legislative committee investigating radicalism, that the self-styled Russian Ambassador to the United States, who was arrested here, was a member of the Socialist party, and in 1911 was the party's candidate for Mayor. He received a call at 11 o'clock, the night before election, from Charles Noonan and Russell Hunt, party leaders in the city, who told him that he must sign an undated resignation.

This aroused my ire," he said, "but I signed it."

After serving two years, he was re-nominated, but not re-elected. He attributed his defeat to the fact that voters learned he had signed the resignation blank and felt he was controlled by the Socialist local.

REPUUDIATES PLEDGE. Therefore, said Mr. Lunn, although he had refused to sign the pledge at the time of his second nomination, he decided in 1915, when he was named for the third time, to make a public statement regarding his repudiation of that section in the party constitution.

His public statement, he testified, created such a furor that members of the Socialist State Committee to Schenectady "to try to patch up the difference." Mr. Lunn said affairs reached a crisis when he named a Republican as City Engineer.

The prosecution contends it is possible for alien members of the Socialist party, through a clause in the party constitution, to control Socialist elections to public office.

Counsel held the cornerstone of a defense that several splits had occurred recently in the Socialist party, when the "left wingers" and Communists had broken away, and that many of their acts were being wrongfully charged to the Socialists.

DRY SPELL ADVOCATED TO LOWER WINE COST.

BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.

PARIS, Jan. 28.—French newspapers have been poking much fun at America for its rigid enforcement of the prohibition measure, but some of them are advocating temporary abstinence from wine drinking to bring the price down within reasonable limits.

The price of wine, which varied between 10 and 15 francs a hundred litres previous to the war, now hovers between 100 and 120 francs. This is the price paid to the vineyards. Various brokers levy a percentage of 25 to 35.

Carnegie Pensions, $773,707.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—The sum of $773,707 was paid in pensions during 1919 by the United States Steel and Carnegie Pension Fund, it was announced here tonight. The total paid out since the fund was organized nine years ago is $1,500,815.

At the beginning of this year a total of 2540 persons were drawing incomes from the fund, according to the annual report. The average age of the pensioners was 65 years and the average time of service thirty years. The average monthly pension was $21.55.

of profit and the cost of transportation from Southern and Eastern France, also is added, bringing the price per quart to 1 franc, 40 centimes, or 1 franc, 50 centimes, instead of 40 centimes as before the war. This applies to the ordinary red wine, which before the war was the common beverage of the French working class.

LAZZARI is an exclusive Edison artist

—today Lazzari is acclaimed the wonder contralto of the decade—the successor to Mme. Schumann-Heink in the Metropolitan Grand Opera Company.

—her almost instantaneous rise to the zenith of success has won for her the title of "Lazzari the Meteoric."

—but long before the name of Lazzari was known to the musical world Edison "discovered" her and immortalized her art.

—Lazzari was "discovered" and chosen by the Edison Laboratories just as all Edison artists are chosen.

—recognizing that the qualities that win artist fame on the stage are not always the qualities that mean greatness of voice, Edison artists are measured by the latter standard, and according to Edison's own scientific system of tone analysis.

—and that is why you will find that Edison artists are those with great voices and faultless technique.

Hear Lazzari's Re-Creations on The NEW EDISON

If you were so fortunate as to have heard Lazzari at Trinity Auditorium Tuesday evening you will recognize in these Edison RE-CREATIONS the exact duplicate of her every tone.

You may also hear your other favorites. Anything you desire in music is in the Edison library of RE-CREATIONS, by artists of superlative gifts.

SAGE TEA DANDY
TO DARKEN HAIRIt's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folk, they've wanted, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound tonight and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.—(Advertisement.)

SPINOGRAPHY
One of the more recent developments in chiropractic is the application of the X-ray principle, so as to secure a picture of the spine, showing the displaced vertebrae. We are now able to render this most valuable service.

DEFINITIONS
Subluxation—Slight displacement of a vertebra.
Vertebra—One of the spinal bones.
Chiropractic—Science of spinal adjustments.
Spino-graphy—Chiropractic X-ray.
Impingement—State of being pinched.

ANNOUNCEMENT
We are pleased to announce that we are now in our new, enlarged and centrally located suite of offices opposite the Broadway Department Store—404 Mason Bldg. Our rapidly growing practice has made this change advisable. We now have every strictly chiropractic convenience, including spino-graphic (X-Ray) service and private rest rooms. We believe this to be one of the best equipped chiropractic offices on the Pacific Coast. Plenty of room, light, air, privacy, and with all, we are Palmer School Chiropractors with a record of several years of successful practice.

OUR ALMA MATER—The Palmer School of Chiropractic (The Mother School of Chiropractic) is the oldest, largest and best equipped drugless school of ANY KIND anywhere in the world today. It was here we graduated from a three-year (4000-hour) residence course in Chiropractic. At the present time there are approximately 1500 students in attendance, with the number rapidly increasing.

Parsons Says:

"Hit the Line Hard!"

This exhortation is being made today to every man, woman and child by editors, preachers, teachers, sales managers, business directors and other leaders in all walks of life. It is all right and a fine thing—in fact, THE thing to do—to tell the man who HAS hitting power, to "hit the line hard." But just remember there are many, many, altogether too many, who do not have that HITTING POWER.

2,500,000 MEN in the first draft were disqualified for active military service because of physical defects which rendered them unable to "hit the line hard." Being unfit for military service, they are therefore unfit to render FULL service in ANY capacity. They are unable to get FULL returns from life in any position.

HITTING POWER

is the first requisite. No man ever had good hitting power without a first-class backbone. We are familiar with the term backbone meaning stability of character, or a main support, so with the backbone of the body, hitting power and a good backbone always go together.

CHIROPRACTIC ADJUSTMENTS

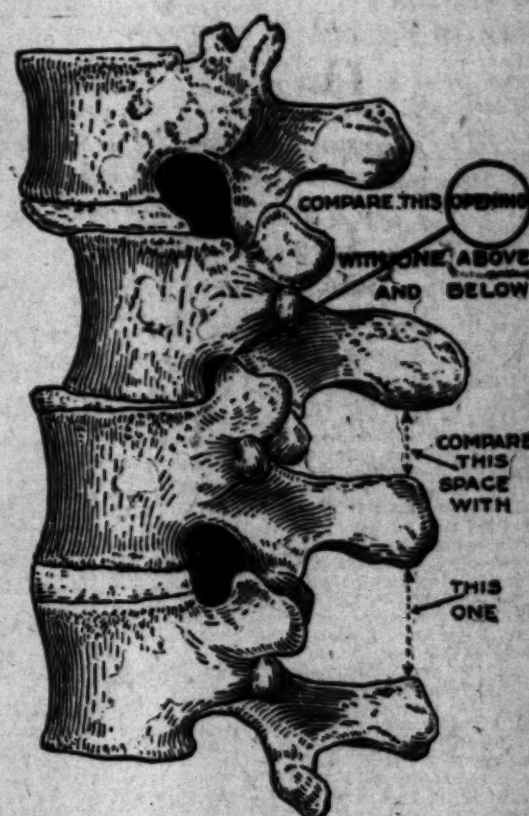

correct slight deviations in the backbone which are caused by shocks, jars, falls, strain, overlifting, exposure, etc. All vitality of every organ and cell of the entire body is transmitted directly or indirectly through the openings between the bones of the back. This is practically the only point where pressure can occur, sufficient to cause trouble.

THE CHIROPRACTOR

studies the backbone, makes his analysis of the backbone and adjusts the backbone. It is his business to keep the vital tracks of the spinal column in perfect working condition. This will do more to raise your hitting power to its full limit than ANYTHING ELSE you can try. There is nothing else "just as good."

GET HITTING POWER FIRST

Then, "hit the line hard," no matter where it is or what it is. Hit it hard and fast and you are sure to win.

Showing how subluxated (displaced) vertebrae (spinal bones) cause pressure on nerves, and thereby prevent nerve impulses from passing to the organs of the body, from the brain. Interference with life currents will have a corresponding effect in some part of the body. It is important, therefore, that displaced vertebrae be adjusted. Chiropractors specialize in this work, and by their valuable service have endeared themselves to multitudes.

SMILING

It is not generally known that this motto originated with chiropractic. It is often commented on, as being particularly appropriate to our science, as it is easier to smile when one's spine is in alignment. Try it.

ALLITERATE MEN.

Alliteration suits the nation. When Woodrow Wilson is a mover he may make room for Herbert Hoover.

LADIES FIGHT.

The Legislature of the different States appear to be in a sort of a gallant rivalry in getting the ladies under the big tent in time to vote for Herbert Hoover.

WASTE MOTION.

Congress has a bill before it to prevent piracy in the movie picture game. Pretty soon it won't be necessary. The films are getting so they are hardly worth stealing.

JUST AS GOOD.

Now that we have found how to make Swiss cheese out of the American brand by having larger holes in it we can defy the Swiss navy at any rate. We can produce our own skippers.

YOUNG SMOKERS.

The big tobacco manufacturers and dealers are said to be themselves behind the proposition to prevent the sale of cigars and cigarettes to minors. There's enough business in the old timers to keep them going without ringing in the youngsters.

CONCRETE EXAMPLES.

The last concrete ships built in Oregon shipyards do not seem to be working well and a couple of them sank while in tow. This business of building a mercantile fleet of stone seems to be better in the abstract than in the concrete.

QUOTE POSSIBLE.

Those who are arguing that there can be no compromise over the Senate reservations on Article X of the League covenant would not vote for the covenant under any form. The Times refuses to believe that an understanding and agreement of Senators is impossible.

HUNDRED PERCENT AMERICAN.

Who is the 100-percent American? We should say the man who was caught speeding with his sweetheart and sent to jail for ten days by Judge Cox and who on his release went to the same judge to get married to the same sweetheart—to show his belief in the strict enforcement of the law, though he himself was the sufferer—comes as near being 100-percent American as anyone we know of.

WATCH YOUR SMOKE.

It is said that the people of Mars are again trying to signal us and find out what the matter down here. Seems that our cigarette smoke gets in their eyes and makes them blink. They think that with so much smoke our world must be on fire. On the strength of this the Anti-Tobacco League will expand its crusade to make this a smokeless nation. We must not annoy the mild men of Mars.

BEGINNING RIGHT.

Gen. Pershing is a sturdy apostle of preparedness. Even if the world were to never again know the pangs of war he favors a course of six months of intensive training along military lines for all the young men of America. Proof of its value was furnished in the improved mental and physical bearing and moral citizenship of the four million young Americans in war service. It is both a discipline and an education.

SPEEL IT WITH A "P".

I.W.W.'s and leaders generally will find little consolation in the latest dispatches from Russia. Lenin, it is a fact, has held his own there—but how? By employing an iron-disciplined army of over a million Slav conscripts and Chinese mercenaries and by putting in force a compulsory twelve-hour working day for Russian labor.

Not much Utopia about this. It smells more of the Junker than of Karl Marx. Lenin, to make his dictatorship secure, is adding a preliminary "P" to Russia. But his sovietizing propagandists in the United States will, we imagine, think twice before risking the horrors of a twelve-hour working day. Deportation now has a new significance.

AFTER THE LANDLORD.

There's a bill before the Maryland Legislature aimed at the grasping landlords of apartment-houses. The conditions which prevail in Los Angeles exist in Baltimore or any other large and growing city. Under the Maryland measure it is proposed to restrict rental income to 15 per cent. of the actual value of the property. Beyond that would be unconstitutional or not in any other matter. The point is that the people are inflamed to the degree wherein they demand something of the kind. At the same time, when money can be borrowed for 5 per cent, it would seem that 15 allowed only a margin for profiteering.

SIMS AND DANIELS.

The court will not be deceived by Democratic charges of betrayal of confidence in connection with the disclosures made by Admiral Sims concerning the manner in which the Navy Department was conducted during the war. Admiral Sims' refusal to accept a Distinguished Service Medal because it had come to be a badge of politics rather than of merit was a courageous action, one for which the country cannot be too grateful.

It has been one of the traditions of Anglo-Saxon navies that an officer who lost his vessel should be subjected to a court-martial. It devolved upon him to prove that the loss was inescapable. Secretary Daniels discontinued this practice and went to the opposite by conferring Distinguished Service Medals on the commanders who lost their ships.

Admiral Sims proved too big a man to be enslaved by the automatic discipline which Secretary Daniels sought to enforce. Ignorant himself of things pertaining to the navy, the Secretary endeavored to conceal his inefficiency by denying to all naval officers the right to express themselves on naval affairs. When Admiral Sims was asked to address the Commercial Club on preparedness Secretary Daniels refused him permission to make any address at all. "You cannot as much as say that two and two make four," was the order that Admiral Sims received. Admiral Rodman, commander of the Pacific Fleet, was denied the privilege of making an after-dinner speech unless he should submit his notes beforehand to be vied by Secretary Daniels and should ADHERE RIGOROUSLY TO HIS NOTES.

One wonders whether Secretary Daniels realizes that he is Secretary of the Navy for the United States and not for Japan. Such automatic action is not in keeping with American institutions. And the American people are very well aware that such rigid rules of silence would not be promulgated if there were not a great deal of inefficiency to conceal.

Writing for The Times last Sunday, a distinguished American naval officer said that the higher officers of the navy who really rendered meritorious service during the war are almost a unit behind Admiral Sims in his exposure of the treacherous activities of the Sims Feinners and of the absurdities of the naval awards. He writes that demoralization in the navy is widespread, a condition that explains why successful men cannot be secured to man the ships now in commission.

Democratic politicians in Washington are beginning to snarl and show their teeth by reason of the testimony given by Admiral Sims before the naval subcommittee of the Senate. During that investigation Senator Hale asked Admiral Sims whether he had made a special report to Secretary Daniels in regard to the conduct of the navy during the war. Admiral Sims replied that he had done so. Senator Hale asked him to file a copy of the report with the Senate Investigating Committee and the admiral did so.

It is but natural that Secretary Daniels and some of the swivel-chair navy men should be incensed at the publication of the report; for it reveals many things they never intended the public should know. Congressman Burns, a southern Democrat, made a speech in the lower house Tuesday censuring Admiral Sims for making the report public and asking that he be dishonorably discharged from the navy. The purpose of that motion is easy to fathom. The Senate investigation is not yet ended and the administration is seeking to intimidate other naval officers from telling the truth, holding over their heads the threat of discharge.

Admiral Sims will not suffer in the estimation of the American public by reason of that attack. If he were to be dishonorably discharged now the American people would elect a successor to President Wilson a man pledged to give to Admiral Sims the portfolio of the navy. We are not so biased or so apathetic in regard to national affairs that one who has rendered such distinguished service to the country as Admiral Sims can be punished for doing his duty. It is to be regretted that there are not other officers in the navy courageous enough to come out in the open and tell what those things are on which Secretary Daniels has imposed so rigorous a silence.

But we are well aware that Secretary Daniels and some of the petty officials about him are of small enough caliber to offer the dishonorable discharge of the officers and men who would make public the details of the absurd manner in which the navy has been directed by the present administration. Any officer who tells the truth is marked for demotion. Admiral Sims has been assailed and reprimanded because he committed the unforgivable offense of telling the facts.

Fortunately for the navy and for the country as well, the days of the present Democratic administration are numbered. There are better times ahead for the officers and men of the navy. The country can be depended upon to repudiate an administration that seeks to lock the navy up in a watertight compartment. The American people pay the cost of support of the navy; they are responsible for it; and they have a right to learn from other lips than those of the head of the department and his political propagandists how it is run. The Senate is empowered by the Constitution to make the investigations in which Admiral Sims was called upon to testify. There has been no direct allegation that his testimony was untrue; but it is because he did reveal existing conditions in the navy that the administration is seeking his discharge. The Times can assure Admiral Sims and any other naval officer who testifies truthfully and fearlessly concerning the conduct of the navy under the present administration that any wound which they may receive in the attack directed against them by supporters of the present Democratic administration will leave only an honorable scar.

IN MISSOURI.

Senator Johnson will campaign in a special Congressional election in Missouri on behalf of a candidate who is running on a platform opposing the League of Nations. His protegee is opposed by a captain who was in service overseas, so that the California appears to have gone out of his way to pick a scrap with the American League.

"Whoo-Hoo? Hoover!"

THINGS PEOPLE DON'T WANT.

Whether "vox populi" is the voice of God or merely of "one crying in the wilderness," political leaders, statesmen, party managers, candidates and office-seekers who disregard it will return home with empty baskets.

The voice of the people changes its note from year to year, from month to month, even from day to day; those who would remain closely in touch with popular opinion must keep their ears glued constantly to the receiver.

At the start of the race for the 1920 election stakes the American people are in a peculiarly stiff-backed and hard-bitten temper.

In regard to the things they do want they are, as usual, very much divided, but about the things they don't want they have very definite and decided opinions.

In the first place they don't want the chariot of state to be dragged painfully along by any old, wretched wheel horses. They expect the new high-power American motor car to be run on gasoline, not hay. They don't want a campaign of "glittering generalities." They are in a peculiarly practical frame of mind. Sentimental and emotional appeals that did political service in the nineteenth century will leave them cold and unimpressed.

Hyperbolic invocations to the spirits of the great dead will fill no ballot boxes. Lincoln and Washington and Andrew Jackson had entirely different problems to solve. No one knows how they would have approached present-day controversies. The future of the country is in the keeping, not of dead giants, but chiefly of live mediocrities.

For a candidate simply to claim that he is "100 per cent. American" is in itself meaningless. It sounds too much like a woman advertising her virtue or a man his honesty. The mere fact of seeking the suffrage of American citizens presupposes this quality.

What the voters wish to know is precisely what is implied in the claim of a 100-percent Americanism and how the candidate proposes to put it to work. Gov. Coolidge sprang into immense and immediate popularity because he gave the people a practical illustration of his personal brand of Americanism. On the other hand, the California electorate has not forgotten that it elected a President on the claim that "he had kept us out of war," to find four years later that he was just as obstinate in keeping us out of peace.

The voters don't want a campaign of muckraking and mud-slinging. They demand constructive, not destructive, criticism. In the words of Will Hays, they are looking for a programme of "Live and HELP live."

The people ask plain, crisp, succinct declarations from all who expect to serve the public interests after the next election. They require such statements of policy as a business manager draws up for a board of directors.

They don't want a fancy picture of far-fetched promises incapable of realization. A candidate's pledge will have to be as good as his signature to a check. The people are in no mood to tolerate camouflage or evasion.

Women are going to have a large influence in the coming election and the women have developed a shrewd political sense that will not succumb to old-fashioned methods for working up campaign enthusiasm. Women are pushing the domestic problems very much into the foreground and the Presidential candidate who brings their suffrage must be one who has proved his ability to handle domestic and economic questions.

Above all, the people are weary of paying for dreams and poetry and sentimental experiments substituted for solid business sense in the management of public affairs. They have been war-torn and price-fixed and charity-driven and propagandized and restricted and prohibited and regulated and government-controlled and socially-experimented with till they have become hot under the collar. The things they cheerfully endured while their country was at war they have no intention of allowing to be permanently established. American individualism was never more alive than it is today.

At the present time a vast majority of the people are solidly bent on a return to the principles of the Republican party and the re-establishment of Republican principles.

But the party leaders must not fall into the error of supposing that the branding of a candidate as a Republican will on this account be a guarantee of his election. The Republican platform must be written in unmistakable language and no one be encouraged to run as a Republican candidate who does not measure up to its standard.

UNIONS BAR WOMEN.

Thousands of women in England have been adversely affected by a misuse of power by the trades unions. A bill was recently passed by Parliament that the institution of the union makes it illegal for any woman to be employed in any engineering trade where women were not so employed before the war. It is stated that a small army of women has been injured by this act and that during the negotiations between the unions and the government which resulted in its adoption none of the women's organizations was represented.

The government is not blamed so much as the unions; but during the war, when it was endeavoring to speed up labor, it had to agree to a number of demands; and one of these was tantamount to limiting the employment of women to the period of the war. It was called upon to fulfill its pledge, but it went on to have done so with some unnecessary alacrity. The unions have closed the door to women.

Comment is made by London newspapers on the extraordinary fact that, while women may now become members of Parliament, doctors and lawyers, yet in the ranks of industry "they are in a far worse position than before the war." It is certain the women will not rest content with this discrimination. They have just as much right to work as to vote. Thousands of them became skilled workers during the war and can hold their own with the best of the men. Why, then, it is asked, raise these legal barriers against them? This is certainly toydading to the unions with a vengeance. Before 1914 the exclusion of women from the ranks of industry in Britain was merely a trades-union custom; now it has been given the force of law. The women are talking about organizing to secure fair play. Who can blame them?

"KNOW THYSELF."

Get away from the crowd awhile, my boy, and think. Stand on one side and let the world run by, while you get acquainted with yourself, and see what kind of a fellow you are. Ask yourself hard questions about yourself. Ascertain from original sources, if you are really the manner of man you say you are; and if you are always honest: if you always tell the square perfect truth in business details; if your life is as good and upright at 11 o'clock at night as it is at noon; if, in short, you are really the sort of man your father hopes you are, and your sweetheart believes you are. Get on intimate terms without yourself, my boy, and believe me, every time you come out of one of those private interviews you will be a stronger, purer man. Don't forget this. It will do you good and put you in the line to carry off the swiftest of the battle of life.—[Arkansas Thomas Cat.]

WEALTH WELL USED.

The New York Morning Sun says: "The late Henry Clay Frick was American to the core." His will shows that he recognized the fact that great wealth entailed great responsibilities. After making provisions for his family the instrument returns the bulk of his capital to the source from whence it came through agencies that most readily suggest themselves. This is not a unique distinction for Mr. Frick. The Carnegie wealth went the same way. Russell Sage's great fortune has been devoted to good works and a score of other instances might be cited. All men are equal at the hour of birth and at the grave. The best for the wisest or the richest is the shroud of the undertaker and the spade of the digger.—[Arkansas Thomas Cat.]

CONVENTION DELEGATES

Delegates to the national conventions of political parties are selected in accordance with a procedure laid down by the national executive committees. This procedure is made by common consent to conform to the election laws of the different States; but only so long as those election laws conform in a general way to the precedents of the national parties.

To illustrate: If California's Legislature should determine that electors should be chosen on a basis of area, which never changes, in place of on a basis of population, which varies with every census, the national committees would feel justified in refusing to seat the delegates selected by the present basis of representation is two delegates for each Congress district and four at large, reckoned as Senatorial apportionment.

Prior to 1912 the Congress district was the unit of representation in both Republican and Democratic conventions. The delegates were nominated by district and elected by districts, with the exception of the four delegates-at-large, who were selected by the entire State. Just prior to 1912 a number of States, California among them, passed election laws which provided that delegates to the national conventions should be nominated by petition and elected at State-wide primaries, thus making of them all delegates at large. It was this change in election laws that precipitated the squabble over delegates in the Republican convention of 1912. Taft carried New York by a popular vote of about 150,000, but Roosevelt had about fourteen delegates, having carried seven of the Congress districts. Roosevelt carried California by about the same popular vote; but Taft carried one Congress district, and the convention seated the delegates from that district.

This was in strict accord with the procedure laid down by the Republican National Committee, which provided explicitly that the primary vote must be by Congress district and that no delegate could be elected who had not carried his own election district.

In order to prevent a similar squabble in other conventions the national committees of both parties amended their procedure to the extent that delegates to the national conventions are now elected in what is known as the "unit" system. A State shall prescribe, provided that no State shall have more than two votes in the convention for each Congress district and four at large. It is under that rule that delegates will be selected to the national conventions this year.

Delegates in California are nominated by petition and voted for in a State-wide primary. No grouping of delegates is permitted on the primary ballot, and nothing can appear to show what candidates for President they prefer. The names are printed on the ballot in the order that they are filed with the Secretary of State. They are voted for as individuals. About 1100 names are necessary for the filing of a petition for a single city or county. It is only through advertising and circulating the voters that they can know what candidate any particular delegate or group of delegates favors. In 1916 petitions were filed for fifty-two Republican delegates. Half of them were known as the "Johnson ticket" and half as an independent ticket. The independent delegates advertised their group so well that, although the Johnson ticket had filed first, the twenty-six independent delegates were elected.

RIPLING RHYMES.

THE PANIC.

The wise men now predict a panic before this year grows old; there'll be catastrophes titanic by autumn, we are told. The wise men hand us, through their faces, of all news the worst; the present boom has no sound basis, and it is bound to burst. Then there'll be coming, fast and faster, all kinds of perils dire: the doc will pawn his mustard plaster, the hard will sink his lyre. Then glidy boys who now are buying the costly brands of gas will be for handouts vainly yearning—they'll have to feed on grass. So now, while coin seems rather plenty, let's make the strongest box thrive, and every month salt down a twenty or maybe twenty-five. Let's do some wise and cautious planning against the time of stress, and when we see the panic panning we will survive, I guess. And if the panic doesn't reach us we'll be ahead our store; and saving some will surely teach us the way to save some more. —WALT MASON.

WIT IN SMALL PACKAGES.

A Nebraska man declares that it was Col. Stanton and not Gen. Pershing who spoke the now famous words: "Lafayette, we are here." Whoever uttered it, the phrase deserves to go down in history in company with other famous laconisms, such as Napoleon's dispatch from Elba, "Peccati" (I have sinned); De Bourmont's message when his prisoner, the Dey of Algiers, escaped, "Perdre de voir" (I have lost a day); and (in this true or have we merely imagined it?) Admiral Sampson's cablegram, "Cantharides," after General had come from Santiago and fled down the Cuban coast.

P.R.—Alas for Yankee wit! A learned colleague informs us that the last was the message sent by Drake to Queen Elizabeth after the battle of the Armada.—[Boston Transcript.]

PICKING A PRESIDENT.

BY EUGENE BROWN.

Picking out a President is something like harnessing a wife. You want one that will wear well; not run around too much; look pleasant and live within your income. If you get one that is a good manager and has an amiable disposition you have picked a winner.

There are a goodly number of men who would make a capable President and possibly some who deserve the office, but only one can have it at a time, and the matter of selection becomes important. So far as I am concerned I would be satisfied with the second choice as determined by a group vote of the favorite sons. As nearly as I can make out that would pin the ribbon on my old fellow-statesman, Col. Frank O. Lowden. My leaving Illinois and his staying in it has done a wonderful lot for the grand old State. Between us we have kept it on the map all right.

It's a funny thing, though. Here is a Leonora Wood. Ask him who he wants for President and he will blush modestly while admitting that Wood is the best man he can think of, but that next to him Lowden is pretty decent sort of a fellow. Then you ring up Senator Harding. He will blushfully concede that the nominee should be some robust citizen of Ohio whose name begins with H; but, failing that, a Governor of Illinois would be mighty good picking.

And so it goes along the line of Senators and Governors who are big enough to be mentioned for the Presidency. They will have a good word for themselves, but one also for the Illinois executive. Any or all of them would be tickled to death to have him for a running mate. Failing their own nomination they would consent to see him in first place. Even Republicans with such widely-divergent views as Taft, Polk, Hughes, Borah, Penrose, Knox, Lodge, Lammot and Cummins can almost get together in the same room with Lowden. Of the members of the National Committee, which is made up of men whose names are a safe bet that 50 per cent. of them will favor Lowden as either first or second choice.

Col. Lowden ably represented this country district in Congress for two terms and was also a member of the Republican National Committee for eight years. As a Representative he was thoroughly efficient and very close to the people. In 1914 he was elected Governor of Illinois upon a personal platform which promised certain economies and reforms. Since that time his career has been a part of the history of the country. He is known as the man who kept his word. He shook a few thousand politicians loose from their age-old moorings, but they learned to admire him for his unswerving fidelity to purpose, his magnificent business capacity. During the war the patriotic activities of Illinois were not surpassed by any State in the Union. Yet during the same time he was in the midst of increased salaries and advanced cost of all supplies and material.

Gov. Lowden has steadily reduced the tax burden of his State. In this respect Illinois stands unique and alone. This was only possible through Gov. Lowden and his unwavering devotion to his pledge. He had made a promise to his people and he kept the faith. How he adopted a budget system to control all appropriations and how he disposed of more than a hundred interlocking boards and commissions by consolidating them into nine public departments directly responsible to the Governor is already familiar to most Americans. The point is that Illinois is saving money and reducing taxes, also Gov. Lowden is building nearly one hundred million dollars' worth of good roads without adding to the burdens of the taxpayers. When Congress wanted to know about creating a budget or introducing economies they sent for Gov. Lowden as an expert witness. Talk about your business executives! He is the star performer in the efficiency stakes. Withal he is a singularly lovable man and adapts himself with a sense of comradeship to a group of Wall street bankers, a coterie of law professors or a delegation of workers and he is on equal terms with them. He is a most forceful and eloquent public speaker, a thoroughly practical campaigner and a man with a message.

OUT OF THE MOUTHS OF BABES.

Little Alice looked thoughtfully at a splinter friend of her mother's who had just requested Alice to call her "aunt." Said Alice: "But you know I have plenty of aunts and lots of uncles. I am short on grandmothers. Couldn't you be a grandmother to me?"

Bobbie's baseball accidentally hit his grandmother on the nose. After regarding her pained bewilderment a few seconds he remarked: "I nearly knocked you sensible that time, grandmother."

Dick had not waxed enthusiastic over the new little sister. When he was called in from a hall game to "watch baby," his disgust knew no bounds. He stated his opinion in a terse sentence: "Seems to me that the people that sends for babies ought to do the taking care of them."

Little Harry: I want to get a bale of hay.

Dealer: What do you want with it? Is it for your father?

Little Harry: No sir. It's for our horse.—[Chicago News.]

TWO MEET DEATH AT CROWN CITY POLITICAL BUDS BLOSSOM FORTH.

Accidents Wednesday Afternoon have Fatal Ending.

Pros and Cons of Recall Election Hold Meetings.

Four Injured When Motorcycle Hits Automobile.

PARADISE, Jan. 28.—After a fight for three hours physicians tonight abandoned an attempt to save the life of Clayton Card, engineer at the municipal electric light plant, whose unconscious form was found by workmen on the floor near a switchboard, from which a charge of high-voltage electricity had been discharged into the man's body.

Card was found shortly before 5 o'clock and, until after eight hours, Drs. B. O. Coates and Frank Bland, assisted by workmen at the plant, made every effort to bring life back to the young man. The young man was aged 33 years and had resided in Pasadena practically his entire life. He was for years an employee of the Pacific Electric, leaving that company about three months ago. He is a graduate of the Pasadena High School, where he established a reputation as an athlete. He is survived by a widow.

The second fatal accident of the afternoon happened when Wilbur Kitzmiller, the 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Kitzmiller of 805 North Los Robles avenue, was struck by an automobile in front of the home and instantly killed. The boy was on roller skates and it is said that he came down an automobile driveway and glided in front of the machine. The car was driven by Martin Brown of 141 South Margo avenue, who is being held at the Police Station pending an investigation.

POLITICAL POT BOILING.
Tomorrow night at the John Muir school, under the auspices of the Venetian League, the 2500 signers of the recall petitions against Commissioners John J. Hamilton and M. H. Hamilton will be asked to endorse candidates to oppose the incumbents at the election on February 11. The candidates are former Councilman W. T. Root, who is opposing Hamilton, and Leslie I. Hood, a returned soldier; Theodore Byrson, a Spanish War veteran and contractor; and William E. Allen of Pasadena. Arrangements for the funeral have not been made.

HARBOR-BUILT BOAT SAILS FOR ORIENT.

NAVIGATION COMPANY STARTS REGULAR SERVICE TO THE FAR EAST.

LOS ANGELES HARBOR, Jan. 28.—The Los Angeles-Pacific Navigation Company today inaugurated its service of freight steamers between Los Angeles Harbor and China and the East Indies, when the steamer West Montpel sailed for Singapore with a full cargo of Southern California goods.

The Los Angeles-Pacific company will place five big 8800-ton Shipping Board freighters, building at the plant of the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company, on the run from the harbor to the Far East. Cargo is plentiful at both ends of the run and the second vessel of the company, the West Hika, will start loading within a week or ten days. The steamers West Hika and the Los Angeles have also been assigned to this company.

CITY PAYS TRIBUTE.
Resolutions Adopted Recognizing Work of Teacher.

VENICE, Jan. 28.—Believing that the death of Mrs. Lillian Finn, for several years a teacher in the Venice grammar schools, is not a matter of bereavement to the school department only, but to the city at large, the City Trustees today passed a resolution of appreciation of the woman's work. Copies of the resolution were sent to the children of Mrs. Finn.

The thoughtful and realistic ideals of Mrs. Finn were deeply appreciated by the city fathers, who felt it was their duty to honor her memory. Mrs. Finn was a leader in civic interest and in new educational projects. She was untiring in charitable work among unfortunate children of the city.

TRUTHY NEW "BILLS."
REDLANDS, Jan. 28.—A class of about thirty candidates was initiated into the local order of Elks last night. The officers of the Riverside Lodge of Elks occupied the chairs and put on the work. It was a courtesy greatly appreciated by the visitors and they showed it by signing one of the finest initiations the local lodge has ever had. There have been more than a hundred new men taken into the Redlands lodge this winter.

"Will Allow You 6 Per Cent," Says Picture Bureau.

Manager Called to Explain to Labor Official.

Means Charge for Securing Work, is His Defense.

Because complaints have been made that the Great West Motion Picture Bureau, having offices in the Merchants' Trust Building, had sent out to motion-picture directors a letter which conveys the impression that they would be given 6 per cent.

on all commissions secured from players engaged by them, C. C. Stephens, manager of the bureau, was called before Deputy State Labor Commissioner Cable yesterday and required to explain his method of doing business.

The paragraph of the circular letter to directors, to which objections were made, reads as follows: "In order to have you get in touch with us and to interest you in our work, we will allow you 6 per cent, and are sure, when we become acquainted with each other, it will be mutually advantageous to all parties concerned."

When the matter was first brought to his notice, Deputy Commissioner Cable said the letter was clearly a violation of a section of the labor laws of California which reads as follows: "No licensed person shall divide fees with an employer, or an agent of an employer, or with any subordinate, manager, foreman or other employee of any person, firm or corporation to which he is furnished." To do so is a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not to exceed $100.

SAYS HE WEDDED

KISSLESS BRIDE.

"Fraudulent Love" Charged by Husband in Suit for Annulment.

Glenn Stuart Mattern, in his suit to annul his marriage to Sothe Westburg Mattern, filed yesterday, alleges he married a kissless bride. He says that while he was in the military service Mrs. Mattern encouraged his attentions and pretended to be very fond of him. They were married in this city September 8, 1919.

Immediately after the ceremony Mrs. Mattern told her husband, he claims, that she did not love him. She refused to live with him as his wife, he says, and left him. He claims she fraudulently represented her love for him.

In writing, Mr. Cable said Mr. Stephens told him he intended to improve upon the directors the fact that he was charging only 6 per cent. commission for placing persons desiring employment, his idea being that this would appeal to directors, since some of the other photographers employed agencies in the city charge 7 per cent, and in some instances more than that. Mr. Cable expressed himself as being satisfied with the explanation. Mr. Stephens told the deputy commissioner that he is a Cherokee Indian.

Mr. Cable's books show that C. C. Stephens was arrested November 18, 1915, in this city, and charged with conducting an employment agency without a license. He was found guilty by Police Judge Chesbro and was fined $50.

What they describe as the "cornering" of the business of supplying motion-picture extra people to the studios by two or three film employment agencies is a source of great complaint in the army of minor actors and actresses here. To cope with the situation, they have organized a co-operative agency to be run at cost to the job-seeker.

of the matter, Deputy Commissioner Cable said the letter was clearly a violation of a section of the labor laws of California which reads as follows: "No licensed person shall divide fees with an employer, or an agent of an employer, or with any subordinate, manager, foreman or other employee of any person, firm or corporation to which he is furnished." FOR BIG DRIVE

ON PROFITEERS.

Fair Price Body Names Two Subcommittees.

Consumers' League is also to be Organized.

Grocer Gives Bond on Charge of "Kiting" Costs.

In line with the announced policy of the Federal Fair Price Committee to name subcommittees to assist the general committee in enforcing the Lever law, regarding profiteering, the following committees were named yesterday:

San Pedro: Dr. A. C. Stone, R. H. Beaton, and Mrs. John Elliott, the last representing the women of the local party.

Pasadena: John McWilliams, Paul J. Pitner, former Food Administrator; J. W. Cooper, a retired merchant; Mrs. T. S. Bell, food adviser of the Women's Council of Defense, and Mrs. John McDonald.

Representatives of these subcommittees will be present at 2 p.m. today to consult with the general committee at its first meeting in the directors' room of the Realty Board Building, 631 South Spring street.

Executive Secretary W. B. Beirne stated yesterday that it is proposed to name additional subcommittees representing the various outlying municipalities within short time.

That the consumers of the city may get into closer touch with the general committee, it is also proposed to organize what is to be known as the consumers' branch, made up of householders throughout the city, who will always be in a position to furnish information regarding profiteering in their various neighborhoods.

One of the tasks that looms before the committee is that of fixing what are to be known as fair prices for the sale of commodities. And it is believed that when this is done and the body has something tangible to work on quick work will be made of dealers who are asking and receiving more than a fair price for many of the articles of daily consumption.

The fair price fixed by the U. S. Grain Corporation on flour enabled the committee, yesterday, to bring about the first arrest. A complaint was filed on information furnished by Special Agent Hall, of the Department of Justice, before U. S. Commissioner Long, charging M. C. Brett, a grocer doing business at 5224 York boulevard, with a violation of the Lever law. He gave bond of $500 and the hearing was set for February.

The complaint recites that on January 19 Brett sold to Mrs. J. G. McMeekin a ten-pound sack of what is known as Economy Flour, of the government export brand, for 71 cents when the price fixed by the U. S. Grain Corporation was but 69 cents for a ten-pound sack.

This is the first complaint filed as a result of the investigation being conducted by special agents of the Department of Justice, since the organization of the Federal Fair Price Committee. It is understood that the case is being handled as a number of prosecutions for suspected violation of the Lever law.

FOR THE ARMENIANS.

Near East Relief Campaign is to be Launched Here Sunday.

With Lady Anne and Gen. Merop Agapetian and Rev. V. H. Tahmian, all Armenian refugees, appearing as speakers, the Near East relief campaign to raise $600,000 here will be formally opened at 3 p.m. Sunday, in the Bible Institute auditorium. Former Judge Hugh N. Wells will preside, and Rev. M. G. Pajanian, an Armenian pastor from Fresno, will also speak.

Lady Anne and Gen. Agapetian, both of whom won honors and medals for their active service on the battle front during the war, have a thrilling story to tell of Turkish atrocities, and the condition of starving Armenian women and children, as well as of Armenian girls enslaved in harems and forced to propagate the Turkish race. Rev. Tahmian narrowly escaped death twelve times during the massacres, and he will relate his personal experiences.

Southern California has been allotted $1,000,000 for a quota in the campaign, of which Los Angeles is expected to raise $400,000, while the American nation will attempt to secure a total of $600,000 to relieve the conditions in the Near East. The Near East relief is incorporated under an act of Congress and 100 per cent of the campaign funds are sent to the stricken lands.

FOR BETTERMENTS.

Finance Committee Acts to Speed Camp and Other Improvements.

Recommendations were made by the Finance Committee of the City Council yesterday for appropriations that will complete the walks, dressing-rooms and equipment at the new municipal swimming pools at North Broadway and the Buena Vista bridge and alluvium, so that they may be in readiness for service early this spring.

Appropriations were also recommended for betterments at Camp Seely and Camp Radford, including more extensive water development at the former camp and the erection of four more cabins at Camp Radford. Agreement was also reached with the Municipal Playground Commission that an amount equal to that turned into the city treasury from the Municipal Men's Club will be appropriated for the development of this club.

BOY HURT WHEN HE FALLS FROM TRUCK.

Tony Acosta, 15 years of age, of 1424 Lawrence street, was injured, yesterday afternoon, when he fell from the rear of a motor truck at Ninth street and Santa Fe avenue, and the rear wheels of the machine, which was driven by Walter Hildreth of Olive, passed over his left leg. At the Receiving Hospital, where the child was taken for treatment, he was found to have a broken left leg and deep lacerations from the hip to the ankle.

DEFINITE CITY PLAN IS URGED.

Rail Commission Engineer Talks on Traffic.

Big Growth Seen; Declares We Must Act at Once.

Hits Present Use of Streets for Storage Purposes.

Elimination of the automobile from the downtown business section as vital to the solution of the traffic problem, was advocated yesterday by Chief Engineer Richard Sachse of the State Railway Commission in an address before the City Club.

"The automobile represents the largest single item of loss in the traffic congestion," declared Mr. Sachse, "and until the automobile is eliminated we will not make much progress in the settlement of the traffic problem. The streets must be turned back for our traffic use, instead of being used for storage purposes."

"Streets are intended to facilitate business and transportation and not merely for private parking uses. The proposition of parking automobiles at the curb in the business districts is preposterous. It is evident that we have outgrown our city conditions. Los Angeles is today in a surpassing condition of growth. Every condition is right for unlimited growth, a fact that proves the need of a definite city plan. The intelligent city planners should get together and start something which will result in a community good."

Referring to the present street car service, Mr. Sachse described it as being "very bad," but stated that it could be vastly improved and great economies in operation worked if the railway company would adopt the recommendations in the commission's recent report.

Dr. Enoch Perry, a Milwaukee minister, spoke on the evils of socialism and explained the conditions in the Wisconsin city, which resulted in the re-election to Congress of Victor Berger, the Socialist representative.

GEN. PERSHING GUEST OF PASADENA TODAY.

HE AND GOVERNOR TO SPEAK BEFORE MILITARY CHIEF DEPARTS FOR EAST.

Gen. Pershing, returning from San Diego, and Gov. Stephens will be the guests of Pasadena today. Gen. Pershing and party will be met at the Colorado street bridge at 10:30 o'clock by the Pasadena committee, and will be escorted on a sightseeing trip through Pasadena. The route to be followed is south on Orange Grove avenue to Columbia street, to Fair Oaks avenue, to Glenarm, to Oak Knoll, to Alpine, to Oak Knoll Circle, to Lake avenue, to Colorado street, and to the high school, returning to Hill avenue on Colorado street, to East Orange Grove avenue, to Lake, to the Foothill boulevard, to Santa Rosa avenue, to Woodbury road, to Los Robles, to Washington, to Fair Oaks avenue, south on Fair Oaks, and thence to Brookside Park.

At the park Gen. Pershing and Gov. Stephens will speak. Following his address, Gen. Pershing will visit Gen. W. A. Kobbie at his home, 114 South Grand avenue, and at 4 o'clock will leave for the East.

ON MYSTERY "TIP."

AS A RESULT RANCHER SAVES SEVERAL SUM AND TWO LAND IN JAIL.

A mysterious telephone call received yesterday by Chief of Police Home saved $240 for Jacob D. Pantle, a Colorado rancher, and landed Richard Holly, 30 years of age, and Louis Nicker, 46, in the City Jail on charges of highway robbery.

The two men were taken into custody by Police Detectives Brown and Barnett at Eighth and Kohler streets and in their possession the police say they found the $240 belonging to Pantle. According to the victim, who is stopping at Van Nuys, with his son, John, the money was taken from him by force by the two prisoners after they had lured him to a vacant lot and offered to match coins with him.

According to Chief Home a man who refused to give his name telephoned to his office and stated that Pantle was being robbed at Eighth and Kohler streets. He refused to give his name or how he knew Pantle was being robbed. An investigation started by Chief Home, following the receipt of the telephone message, resulted in the two arrests.

TO KEEP HOBOS OUT.

Police Chief Announces Formation of a "River Bed" Squad.

A "river bed squad" to patrol the Los Angeles River bed and the railroad yards, and to attempt to check the hobos and tramps from coming into the city, was formed by Chief of Police Home, yesterday. The squad, which will be in charge of Acting Sergeant Jack Phillips, will include Patrolmen Moore, Dutton, Sander and Bernasconi.

Chief Home, after announcing the formation of the new squad, also made several slight changes in the assignments of the Hollywood, San Pedro, Lincoln Heights and Central divisions.

GRIFFITH FILM SOON

GRAND PRODUCTION WILL BE RELEASED IN FEBRUARY

By Edwin Schallert.

The picture on which D. W. Griffith and his company were working at the time of their stormy trip to the Bahamas Islands when the picture was reported to be lost at sea, is now released as "Rainbow Isle." It is a story of a tropical island. This is the second picture in the series of Griffith's National Exhibitors' Circuit. The players in the cast include Charles Seymour, Richard Barthelmeye, Creighton Hale, Anders B. Hansen, Kate Bruce, Porter Hodge, Herbert Sutch, Florence Short and Walter James.

Authors' Film.

"The Street Called Straight," a record of the Eminent Authors' production of the Goldwyn company, is now at the California Theatre. The photograph is based on King's story, and was directed by Wallace Worsley, the cast including Naomi Childers, Milton S. Eisenhower, Charles Clary and Lyman Yuma.

Favorite in Gish Feature.

George Fawcett, one of the principal character actors of D. W. Griffith's production, has been loaned to the Griffith company for the production, "Her Mother's Which," which is now on the celluloid in the East. Among others who have principal parts are Ralph Graves, William Riker Hatch, George A. Brown and Marie Burke.

Helps the Promotion.

A unique method of studying French has been originated by André Nison, who appears with Edith Grayson in "The Thirteenth Commandment" this week at the Broadway. Desiring to become proficient in the French language, and yet overworked with her work at the studio in the "Fighting French" production, she has given up the plan of having her French teacher give her a lesson twice a week, and has instead, taken a Swedish language course in a language. during the world war as did the railroad securities. The reason was that the demand for their product had increased and the California
Railroad Commission gave them rates which were equitable to the company, consumer and security holder.

We Offer the Unsold Portion of 35,000 Shares Treasury Stock of

RICHFIELD UNITED OIL COMPANY

—AT—
75c Per Share, Par Value, $1.00

The first public offering of treasury shares of this company was oversubscribed 40,000 shares in one week's time and in view of the above fact, together with favorable developments in the field, it is our opinion that this offering will be subscribed immediately.

Subscriptions totaling $76,000 net to the company now have been paid into the treasury, this providing ample margin to carry on development work.

A derrick equipped for standard and rotary rigs has been completed on the property and the very latest and most up-to-date rotary shaft drive, drilling machinery has been received from the Abbott-Robinson Company of Los Angeles and is now being installed and drilling will be under way within a few days.

This company combines the two great things most desirable to a successful oil company — capital and experienced oil men to expend same. Financial affairs of the company are handled through the escrow department of the National Bank and Trust Company of Pasadena, which is also the company's depository.

Our property adjoins the Richfield-Yorba and the Harrington-Dumas leases and extends west and north toward the big producing wells of the General Petroleum, Midway and Union Oil.

If oversubscribed, allotments of the above shares will be made in the order they are received at this office. If not oversubscribed, an allotment of these shares, check will be placed in the mail today and made payable to
